Tournament format

Qualification
Each player plays 6 games using the American style. The minimum number of players per pair of lanes is three, and the maximum is five. Top 32 players will qualify to quarterfinal.

Semifinal – Sunday at 17:00
Semi-finals: The top 32 players with the highest total score after all qualification squads advance to the semi-finals. Players will play 2 games, to which their qualification scoring average (without handicap) rounded up will be added. Players choose their lanes based on their qualification ranking. Top 12 players will qualify for the final.

Final – Sunday at 18:00
The top 12 players with the highest total score after the semi-finals advance to the finals. The final are played in four steps:
- Final step 1: All advancing players play one game.
- Final step 2: The top 9 players after the 1st final step play one game.
- Final step 3: The top 6 players after the 2nd final step play one game.
- Final step 4: The top 3 players after the 3rd final step play one final game to determine the winner of the BNC New Year's Tournament 2027.

Lane assignments for the finals:
The 1st final step is played on lanes 1-8, with players choosing lanes based on their semi-final ranking. The 2nd final step is played on lanes 1-6, chosen based on the score ranking after the 1st final step. The 3rd final step is played on lanes 1-4, chosen based on the score ranking after the 2nd final step. The 4th final step is played on lanes 5-6. Each final step starts from zero; handicaps apply.

Tie rules
In case of a tie in the qualification or semi-finals, the higher maximum single-game score or the first higher game of the player determines the ranking. In case of a tie in individual final games, the better qualification ranking determines the advancing player. In any disputes, the tournament organizer holds the deciding right and final word.
